

Category:

Integrated activity - "I love to sing with my mother and grandmother" - Children's songs collected from the past and present
(Creative Aesthetic Domain - Music Education - listening and rehearsing songs from the folklore of yesterday's and today's children and the Human and Society Domain - Practical activity - collage - making a collection of songs from children's folklore)

Year Group:

Middle group C and Middle group D
Educator: Spănu Lavinia, Gorgan Că tălina,
Pop Florina, Ciobanu Patricia

Learning Objective:

- Name the songs from the children's folklore listened to
- To reproduce the fragment from the proposed songs
- Make a collection of old and new songs known to children

Resources:

- Methods and procedures: conversation, explanation, demonstration, exercise, learning by discovery, Bunch method
- Teaching aids: old books - collections of games and songs for children in kindergarten, musical instruments, colored paper, glue
- Forms of organization: small groups, individually, frontally

Lesson Outline:Lesson Introduction:

-Dear children, we have prepared surprise songs for you that you will listen to and try to guess their names. There are old and new songs that your grandparents, parents and siblings sang to you. In order for these songs to be known by other children from other countries, I suggest that we make a collection of songs.

Main Lesson:

We do the music audition with the preschoolers, then we try to guess the title of the songs. We will sing different mentioned fragments, in groups and individually, boys and girls, and we will make the book with the old and new songs.

Plenary:

The children show enthusiasm in carrying out the proposed activities.

Photographs:

